Any power-of-attorney mentioned in this section may be proved by the production of it without further proof, when it purports on the face of it to have been executed before and authenticated by the officer hereinbefore mentioned in that behalf.

Law as to summonses and commissions.

12. The law for the time being in force as to summonses, commissions and the compelling the attendance of persons summoned in suits before Civil Courts shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any summons or commission issued, and any person summoned, under this Act.

Reason for refusal to register to be recorded.

13. Whenever a Registrar of Mutations, after receipt of a notice under section 6, does not register the transfer or succession in respect of which it is given, he shall make an entry of the fact and state his reasons in such manner as the Local Government may from time to time prescribed.

Procedure on denial of transfer.

14. If any of the persons purporting to have signed the notice, or any one mentioned therein as transferor or transferee or in the case of the death of either, if his representative denies the transfer, or if any such person appears to be a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic, or if any person, where the claim is by succession, appears before the Registrar on issue of a notice under section 9, and denies the succession, the Registrar of Mutations shall refuse to register the mutation.

Procedure when transferor's name of-rights.

15. If the name of a transferor, or of a deceased person through whom succession is claimed, inserted, in a notice given under section 6, not in record- is not recorded in the record-of-rights as that of the person in possession of the land specified in the notice, the Registrar of Mutations shali, without registering the transfer or succession, as the case may be, by a notice, affixed in a conspicuous place, and by beat of drum, in the village in which the land claimed is situated, call upon any person who desires to do so to appear before him at his office within one month from the date of the last-mentioned notice and deny that the alleged transferor, or deceased person through whom succession is claimed, was at the time of the alleged transfer in possession of the land specified in the notice.

And if no person within the prescribed period so appears and denies, the Registrar of Mutations shall, if the other provisions of the Act are complied with, record the transfer or succession, the subject of the notice, in the Register of Mutations.

Appeal against refusal to register.

16. (1) When a Registrar of Mutations has made an order refusing to register a transfer or succession, an appeal shall lie within thirty days from the date of the order against such order to the Collector of the district to whom such Registrar of Mutations is subordinate; and the Lands held in severalty.

Partition according to separate possession, and apportionment of land-revenue.

- 76. (1) When the lands of an estate have been divided by private arrangement formally made and agreed to by all the proprietors, and each proprietor is, in pursuance of such arrangement, in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in the estate, the joint applications presented under section 7 may be to the effect-
 - (a) that a partition of the estate be made by assigning to each proprietor or to two or more proprietors jointly, as his or their separate estate or estates, the lands of which they are in separate possession in pursuance of such arrangement, and
 - (b) that each separate estate so formed be made liable for such portion of the entire land-revenue of the parent estate as was paid by the proprietor or proprietors thereof under the private arrangement aforesaid.

(Secs. 77-79.)

- (2) The Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out the partition in accordance with such application shall satisfy himself that the assets of each separate estate which it is proposed to form will be sufficient to secure the payment of the annual amount of land-revenue for which it is proposed to make such separate estate liable.
- (3) If the Deputy Collector is not satisfied that the assets of each such separate estate will be sufficient as aforesaid, or that with reference to the circumstances of the case, the partition of the land and the assessment of the land-revenue thereon may be made in the manner proposed without endangering the safety of the land-revenue, he shall reject the application, unless all the recorded proprietors agree that the landrevenue for which the parent estate is liable shall be apportioned among the separate estates so to be formed in such a manner that the safety of the total amount of the land-revenue shall not be endangered.
- 77. Whenever the Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out a Lands of partition finds that, in pursuance of a private arrangement formally which each made and agreed to by all the proprietors of an estate, the proprietors is in posses. respectively, or any of the proprietors, are in possession of separate par-sion to be cels of land held in severalty as representing portions only of their res- him. pective interests in the parent estate, while other land of the parent estate is held in common tenancy between such proprietors, then, notwithstanding anything contained in section 7, a joint application shall not be required, and the Deputy Collector shall allot to the separate estate of each proprietor the land of which such proprietor is found to be in possession in severalty in accordance with such private arrangement.

Tanks, wells, watercourses, reservoirs and embankments.

- 80. (1) Tanks, wells, water-courses, reservoirs and embankments shall be deemed to be attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.
- (2) In cases in which, from the extent, situation or construction of any such works, it is found necessary that they should remain the joint property of the proprietors of two or more separate estates, the paper of partition shall specify, as far as the circumstances admit, the extent to which the proprietors of each of such estates may make use of the same, and the proportion of the charges for repairs to be borne by them respectively.

Splitting-up of tenure or holding, and apportionment-of rent thereof.

- 81. (1) No tenure or holding shall be split up for the purposes of a partition unless it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to effect an equitable partition.
- (2) If a tenure or holding be split up as aforesaid, the total existing rent thereof, as ascertained under Chapter VI, shall not be altered, but shall be apportioned among the several parts into which the tenure or holding is divided.
- (3) When it is proposed to split up a tenure or holding and apportion the rent thereof as aforesaid, the Deputy Collector shall cause a notice to be served on the tenants concerned and, after hearing their objections, if any, may order that the tenure or holding be split up, and that the rent thereof be apportioned as aforesaid.
- (4) The Deputy Collector shall notify such apportionment to the tenants concerned.

Land held rent-free not to be divided, except with consent of recorded proprietors.

82. When the Deputy Collector finds in a parent estate land which is claimed to be held rent-free and for which no rent is actually paid (whether the proprietors of the estate do or do not claim a right to receive rent from the land), he shall not make any division or assignment of such land among the separate estates, but shall specify in the partition papers and proceedings that such land is left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent estate, in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate:

Provided that such land or any of it may be allotted among the different separate estates with the consent of all the proprietors of the parent estate.

Procedure when dispute or doubt exists as to whether any land forms part of a parent estate.

- 88. (1) If a dispute or doubt is found to exist as to whether any land forms part of a parent estate, the Deputy Collector shall, after due notice to the parties interested inquire into the fact of possession and shall report his conclusions to the Collector; and thereupon the Collector shall dispose of the matter as follows:—
- (a) he may order that the partition case be struck off the file, if such an order appears to him advisable, and whether the possession of the disputed land is with the proprietors of the parent estate or otherwise; or
- (b) he may order that the partition shall proceed, and that the disputed land be treated as part of the estate under partition, if the possession of such land is with the proprietors of the parent estate and the claim of the other parties to the right in such land appears to him untenable: or
- (c) he may order that the partition shall proceed, but that the disputed land shall not be treated as part of the estate under partition, if the possession of such land is with the other parties and the claim of the proprietors of the parent estate to the right in such land appears to him untenable:

Provided as follows:-

(i) if a claim to land alleged to be in dispute is filed after the Deputy Collector proceeds under section 57 to determine

BENGAL ACT 3 of 1898.

[THE BENGAL TENANCY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1898.][1]

(2nd November, 1898.)

An Act to amend sections 30, 31, 39, 52 and 119 and -Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.[2]

Whereas it is expedient to amend sections 30, 31, 39, 52 and 119 and Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885,[2] in the manner hereinafter appearing;

8 of 1885.

And whereas, the said Act having been passed by the Governor General of India in Council, the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained, under section 5[3] of the Indian Councils Act. 1892, to the requisite amendments being made by an Act of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council;

55 & 56 Vict., c. 14.

And whereas the sanction of the Governor General has similarly been obtained to the amendment of the Court-fees Act, 1870,[1] which is proposed by section 7 (105) of this Act;

BENGAL ACT 1 of 1899.

(THE BENGAL GENERAL CLAUSES ACT, 1899.)[1]

(18th January, 1899.)

An Act for further shortening the language used in Bengal Acts, and for other purposes.

Whereas it is expedient further to shorten the language used in Bengal Acts, and to make certain other provisions relating to those Acts; It is hereby enacted as follows:

PRELIMINARY.

- 1. This Act may be called the Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899. Short title,
- 2. (Repeal of Bengal Act 5 of 1867). Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903).

[1] LEGISLATIVE PAPERS —For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Calcutta Gazette, 1898, Pt. IV, p. 570, and for Proceedings in Council, see thid, Supplement, pp. 1426, 1428, 1579 and 2538.

LOCAL EXTENT.—Since this Act has no "local extent" clause, it must be taken originally to have extended to the whole of the former Province of Bengal, including the de-regulationised tracts.

It is in force inthe Angul District, see Vol. IV, Part 4; and the Sonthal Parganas, see Vol. IV,

OTHER SIMLAR ACTS.—This Act closely follows the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), passed by the Governor General in Council (printed in the General Acts, 1837-97, Ed. 1903, p 571), and swine of its clauses are based on clauses of the Interpretation Act, 1838 (52 & 55 Vict, c. 63), printed in the Collection of Statutes relating to India, 1815, Vol. 11, p. 761. Similar Acts have been passed by other Legislative Councils in India, vic., Madrias Acts 1 of 1267 and 1 of 1984, Bombay Act 1 of 1894, Eastern Bengal and Assam Act 1 of 1890, Winted Provinces Act 1 of 1809, Punjab Act 1 of 1893, Burna Act 1 of 1898.

APPLICATION OF THE VARIOUS GENERAL CLAUSES ACTS -The General Clauses Act, 1897, applies, for the most part, only to Acts of the Governor General in Council and to Regulations made under the Government of India Act, 1870 [33 & 34 Vict., c. 3] printed in the Collection of Statutes relating to India, 1913, Vol. 1, p. 423; but a. 12 applies also to Indian enactments of all kinds, including, among others, Bengal Acts. The section runs as follows :--

"12. Where, by any enactment now in force or hereafter to be in force, any duty of customs or excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, meaure or value of any goods or merchandise, then a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity." Duty to be taken and 30, to apply only to Bengal Acts.

The Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899, is expressed, in every section except ss. 27

The Interpretation Act, 1899, applies only to Acts of Parliament.
The Acts of the Madras, Bombay, United Provinces, Punjab and Burma Councils have effect only in the Provinces in which they were respectively passed.

GENERAL DEFINITIONS.

[6] This includes the present Province of Bihar and Orissa.
[7] A similar definition is given in clause (5) of section 3 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), printed in the General Acts, 1887-97, Ed. 1909, p. 572. The definition was inserted in order to introduce a uniform method of citing Acts of the Bengal Council and to suggest the abandonment of the various other methods formerly adopted, c.g., "Act (B. C.) of 1869," "Act 1 of 1869 passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council." The method of citation most commonly adopted was "Act 1 (B. C.) of 1869," but the abbreviation of "(B. C.)" is peculiarly inappropriate, inasmuch as it would stand equally well for Acts of the Bombay or Burma Council, and is the recognized abbreviation for Before Christ.

DART III

PROVISIONS TO BE CONTAINED IN FIRST SETTLEMENTS.

- 10. (1) Every settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Settlement Act, in respect of any estate shall provide that the estate shall be held for of estates life—

 generations
 - (a) by the settlor, as first tenant for life:
 - (b) and thereafter, by the second tenant for life, who shall be the eldest or only son of the first tenant for life:
 - (c) and thereafter, by the third tenant for life, who shall be the eldest or only son of the second tenant for life.
 - (2) Every such settlement shall further provide,-
 - (i) if the estate is one to which the settlor was, immediately before the execution of the settlement, solely entitled—that, after the life of the third tenant for life, the eldest or only son of such tenant shall hold the estate absolutely:
 - (ii) if the estate belonged, immediately before the execution of the settlement, to a joint Hindu family—that, after the life of the third tenant for life, the eldest or only son of such tenant shall during his life be the karta or manager of the estate, but without prejudice to the rights of any persons who, but for the settlement, would be co-owners of the estate; and
 - (iii) if the estate belonged, immediately before the execution of the settlement, to co-sharers—that, after the life of the third 'tenant for life, the eldest or only son of such tenant shall have during his life the sole right of management over the estate:

but subject in each case to the terms of any fresh settlement made by a tenant for life in pursuance of permission granted under section 16.

¹³ Act 14 of 1883 has been repealed and re-enacted by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), and this reference should now be taken to be made to that Code—εεε s. 188 thereof, in the General Acts, 1904-09, Ed. 1909, p. 183.

(Secs. 11-12.)

- (3) If the eldest or only son of the settlor has predeceased the settlor, or if the settlor desires to exclude such son from holding the estate on the ground of incapacity or defect of character which is proved by the settlor to the satisfaction of the Local Government, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, the Local Government may permit him to provide in the settlement—
 - (i) that the second tenant for life shall be another son of the settlor, if he has another son, or the eldest or only son of the son who has predeceased the settlor or has been excluded as aforesaid, and
 - (ii) that the third tenant for life shall be the eldest or only son of the second tenant for life, or the eldest or only son of the son who has predeceased the settlor or has been excluded as aforesaid.
- (4) Any settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Act may provide that any tenant for life may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, by written instrument surrender his interest under the settlement in favour of the next tenant for life.

Further reminders. 11. Every settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Act may also contain provisions for vesting the estate, in the event of the settlement on the second tenant for life or the third tenant for life or his son failing to take effect, in some other person descended from the settlor or the settlor's father in the direct male line.

Further provisions in settlements.

- 12. (1) Every settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Act shall specify all incumbrances referred to in clause (ii) of section 8.
- (2) Every such settlement shall also contain such provisions as may be approved by the Local Government with regard to the following matters, namely:—
 - (a) the discharge of incumbrances on the estate, and the payment of interest thereon; or their continuance (with or without modification), and the payment of interest thereon;
 - (b) the maintenance of the co-owners and co-sharers (if any) by or on whose behalf a declaration has been made under clause (ii) of section 5, and of all persons who at the time of the execution of the settlement are, or thereafter may be, legally entitled to maintenance out of the estate;
 - (c) the management of the estate after the death of the settlor-
 - (i) during a period not exceeding five years after such death, pending the adoption of a son under the circumstances described in sub-clause (ii) of clause (h) of section 2, or
 - (ii) during the minority of the second tenant for life;

(Sec. 13.)

- (d) the management of the estate after the death of the second tenant for life—
 - (i) during a period not exceeding five years after such death, pending the adoption of a son under the circumstances described in sub-clause (ii) of clause (h) of section 2, or
 - (ii) during the minority of the third tenant for life;
- (e) the management of the estate after the death of the third tenant, for life-
 - (1) during a period not exceeding five years after such death, pending the adoption of a son under the circumstances described in sub-clause (ii) of clause (h) of section 2,
 - (ii) during the minority of the next holder.

14 of 1882.

(3) If any settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Act includes money, securities for money, or movable property, the settlement shall contain such provisions as may be approved by the Local Government for vesting such money, securities or property in a trustee, for the investment or conversion of such money or securities in or into securities authorized by section 20[1] of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, and the payment to the trustee of expenses and remuneration in accordance with rules made under section 37, clause (c).

Explanation —The Official Trustee of Bengal,[2] the Collector or any private person may be appointed to be a trustee for the purposes of this sub-section.

(4) In addition to the various matters hereinbefore specified the Local Gavernment may require or permit the insertion in any settlement made under the foregoing provisions of this Act, of any provisions which it may think fit, and may make its approval of the settlement conditional on the invertion of provisions which it has required to be inserted:

Provided that no provisions inserted in pursuance of this sub-section shall operate to the prejudice of any secured or unsecured creditor unless assented to by him.

PART IV.

SUPPLEMENTARY SETTLEMENTS AND FRESH SETTLEMENTS.

13. (I) At any time after a settlement has been made under the fore-Supplement going provisions of this Act, a tenant for life may apply to the Local Govary settlement in respect to pre-specific the General Acts, 1879-86, Ed. 1909, p. 180.

A sto the Official Trustees, see the Official Trustees Act, 1913 (2 of 1913), in the Perty. General Acts, Vol. VII (1909-1913), p. 299.

(Sec. 16.)

solely entitled, the Local Government may, in its discretion, and after such inquiry (if any) as it may think fit to make, by written order, either-

- (i) reject the application, or
- (ii) grant permission to make the proposed settlement.
- (3) If any such application relates to an estate which belonged, immediately before the execution of the former settlements, respectively, to a joint Hindu family or to co-sharers the application must be accompanied by a declaration by all persons (other than the applicant) who, but for such settlements, would be co-owners or co-sharers in the estate, to the effect that they are willing to assent to the proposed settlement.
- (4) If any of such co-owners or co-sharers is, at the time when the application is made, a minor or a lunatic, a declaration under sub-section (3) of this section may be accepted if it is made and approved as inducated in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be, of section 5.
- (5) In every case referred to in sub-section (3) of this section, the Local Government shall send a copy of the application, and of the declarations which accompanied it, to each person who has made a declaration in pursuance of that sub-section; and, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, shall publish a notification-

- (a) setting forth the application and the declarations which accompanied it;
- (b) calling upon all persons (other than creditors) interested or claiming to be interested in the estate, to send to the Local Government written notice of their interests within a period of six months from the date of the notification, and
- (c) intimating that any objections by such persons to the purposed settlement, which may be communicated to the Local Government, in writing within the said period, will be duly considered:

and, at any time after the expiration of the said period and after conlering any notices and objections received under this sub-section, and ter such inquiry (if any) as it may think fit to make, may, in its discren, by written order, either—

- (i) reject the said application, or
- (ii) grant permission to make the proposed settlement.

(Secs. 17-18.)

Provisions as to fresh settlements.

- 17. (1) The provisions of sections 10, 11 and 12 shall apply to every fresh settlement made in pursuance of permission granted under section 16.
- (2) All property which, immediately before the execution of a fresh settlement in respect of any estate, is included in any former settlement of the estate made under this Act, must be included in such fresh settlement.
- (3) No property shall be included in any fresh settlement made under this Act in respect of any estate unless it is, immediately before the execution of such settlement, included in a former settlement of the estate made under this Act.
- (4) If any incumbrance, which is dealt with in any former settlement made under this Act in respect of any estate, is still in existence at the time of the execution of the fresh settlement of the estate, then nothing contained in such fresh settlement shall affect the rights of the creditor unless assented to by him.
- (5) Every fresh settlement made under this Act in respect of any estate shall, subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, supersede all former settlements made under this Act in respect of such estate.

PART V.

SETTLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Approval, stamping and registration of settlements.

- 18. (1) No settlement made under this Act shall take effect unless the instrument of settlement—
 - (a) is of a non-testamentary character,

CHAPTER IV.

OCCUPANCY-RAIYATS.

General.

- 16. Every raivat who, immediately before the commencement of Continuance of existing this Act, has, by the operation of any enactment, or by local custom or occupancy usage or otherwise, a right of occupancy in any land, shall, when this aghts. Act comes into force, have a right of occupancy in that land notwithstanding the fact that he may not have cultivated or held the land for a period of twelve years.
- 17. (1) Every person who, for a period of twelve years, whether Definition of wholly or partly before or after the commencement of this Act, has rayat."

(Sec. 18.)

continuously held as a raiyat land situate in any village, whether under a lease or otherwise, shall be deemed to have become, on the expiration of that period, a settled raiyat of that village.

- (2) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have continuously held land in a village nothwithstanding that the particular land held by him has been different at different times.
- (3) A person shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have held as a raiyat any land held as a raiyat by a person whose heir he is.
- (4) Land held by two or more co-sharers as a raiyati holding shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have been held as a raiyat. by each such co-sharer.
- (5) A person shall continue to be a settled raiyat of a village as long as he holds any land as a raiyat in that village and for three years. thereafter.
- (6) If a raiyat recovers possession of land under section 71 or by suit, he shall be deemed to have continued to be a settled raiyat notwithstanding his having been out of possession more than three years.
- (7) If, in any suit or proceeding, it is proved or admitted that a person holds any land as a raiyat, it shall, as between him and the landlord under whom he holds the land, be presumed, for the purposes of this section, until the contrary is proved or admitted, that he has for twelve years continuously held that land or some part of it as a raiyat.

Bhuinhars and Mundari khunt-kattidars to be settled raiyat in certain cases.

- 18. The following classes of persons shall be deemed to be settled raiyats for the purposes of this Act, in regard to the land in their villages which they cultivate as raiyats (other than their own bhuinhari or Mundari khunt-kattidari land, and other than landlords' privileged lands as defined in section 118), and the provisions of sub-sections (3) to (6) of section 17 shall apply to such persons as if they were raiyats, namely:—
 - (a) where any land in a village, other than land known as manjhihas or lethkheta, is entered in any register prepared and confirmed under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869,[1] all members of any Bhuinhari family who Ben. Act like hold, and have for twelve years continuously held, land in of 1869.

 such village, and
 - (b) where any village contains land not forming part of a Mundari khunt-kattidari tenancy, and an entry of Mundari khunt-kattidari tenancies or of Mundari khunt-kattidars in such village has been made in any record-of-rights as finally published under this Act or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act—all male members of any Mundari khunt-kattidari family who hold, and have for twelve years continuously held, land in such village.

19. Every person who is a settled raiyat of a village within the Settled 'meaning of section 17 or section 18 shall have a right of occupancy in Taiyats to all land (other than landlords' privileged lands as defined in section paney rights. 118) for the time being held by him as a raryat in that village.

20. (1) When the immediate landlord of an occupancy holding is Effect of a proprietor or a permanent tenure-holder, and the entire interest of the acquisition of landlord and the raiyat in the holding become united in the same right by land-person by transfer, succession or otherwise, such person shall not retain a lord. right of occupancy in the holding, but shall hold the same as a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, as the case may be; but nothing in this sub-section shall prejudicially affect the rights of any third person.

(2) If an occupancy-right in land is transferred to a person jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, he shall be entitled to hold the land subject to the payment to his co-proprietors or joint permanent tenure-holders of the shares of the rent which may be from time to time payable to them; and, if such transferee sub-lets the land to a third person, such third person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder or a raiyat, as the case may be, in respect of the land.

Illustration—A, a co-sharer landlord, purchases the occupancy holding of a raiyat, X. A is entitled himself to hold the land on payment to his co-sharers of the shars, of the rent payable to them in respect of the holding. A sub-lets the land to Y, who takes it for the purpose of establishing tenants on it; Y, becomes a tenure-holder in respect of the land. Or A sublets it to Z, who takes it for the purpose of cultivating it himself; Z becomes a raiyat in respect of the land

(3) A person interested in any estate, tenure, village or land, whether solely or jointly with others, as a temporary tenure-holder, ijaradar or farmer of rents or as a mortgagee in possession, shall not, during the period of his lease or mortgage, acquire by purchase or otherwise a right of occupancy in any land comprised in his lease or mortgage:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prohibit the acquisition of occupancy-rights by any village-headman (whether known as pradhan or manjhi or otherwise) who by local custom or usage has a right to acquire the same.

Explanation.—A person having a right of occupancy in land does not lose it by subsequently becoming jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, or by subsequently holding the land in ijara or farm.

(Secs. 21-26.)

 - (a) by tendering the rent at the mal-cutcherry for the receipt of rents or other place where the rent of such land is usually payable, or
 - (b) by remitting the amount of the rent to the landlord or his agent by postal money-order in the prescribed form.
- 54. (1) Every tenant who makes a payment on account of rent, or Receipts for interest due thereon, or both, to his landlord shall be entitled to obtain interest thereforthwith from the landlord or his agent, free of charge, a signed receipt on for the same in the prescribed form.

(2) The landlord or his agent shall prepare and retain a counterfoil, in the prescribed form, of the receipt.

(3) If any landlord or his agent, without reasonable cause, fails to grant such a receipt or to prepare and retain such a counterfoil, then, on proof thereof, the Deputy Commissioner may, in a summary proceeding, by order, impose on the landlord a fine which may extend to fifty rupees in respect of each such failure; and may, in his discretion, award to the tenant, by way of compensation, such portion of the fine as the Deputy Commissioner may think fit.

(Secs. 55-56.)

- (4) If, in any suit or other proceeding under this Act or any other law, the Court or presiding officer (not being the Deputy Commissioner) finds that any landlord or agent has failed—
 - (a) to deliver to a tenant a receipt in the prescribed form, or
 - (b) to prepare and retain a counterfoil, in the prescribed form, of a receipt delivered to a tenant as aforesaid, such Court or officer shall inform the Deputy Commissioner.

(5) If, in any proceeding instituted under sub-section (3), the Deputy Commissioner discharges any landlord, and is satisfied that the complaint or allegation of the tenant on which the proceedings were instituted is false or vexatious, the Deputy Commissioner may, in his discretion, by his order of discharge, direct the tenant to pay to the landlord such compensation, not exceeding fifty rupees, as the Deputy Commissioner may think fit.

Deposit of rent in Court of Deputy commissioner...

- 55. In any of the following cases, namely,-
 - (a) when a tenant tenders or remits money on account of rent, and the landlord or his agent refuses to receive it or refuses to grant a receipt for it; or
 - (b) when a tenant who is bound to pay money on account of rent has reason to believe, owing to a tender having been refused or a receipt withheld on a previous occasion, that the landlord or his agent will not be willing to receive it and to grant him a receipt for it; or
 - (c) when the rent is payable to co-sharers jointly, and the tenant is unable to obtain the joint receipt of the co-sharers for the money, and no person has been empowered to receive the rent on their behalf; or
 - (d) when the tenant entertains a boná fide doubt as to who is entitled to receive the rent, the tenant, whether a suit has been instituted against him or not, may deposit, to the credit of the landlord, the full amount which he considers to be due from him, in the Court of the Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction to entertain a suit or application for such rent;

and such deposit shall, as far as the tenant and all persons claiming through or under him are concerned, in all respects operate as, and have the full effect of, a payment then made by the tenant of the amount deposited to the credit of the landlord.

56. (1) On the written application of the tenant or his agent, and on his making a declaration in the prescribed form, the Deputy Commissioner shall receive such deposit and give a receipt for the sum deposited.

Power to replace in possession fully ejected.

71. If any tenant is ejected from his tenancy or any portion thereof in contravention of section 68, he may, within a period of one year (or, tenant unlaw- if he is an occupancy-raiyat, three years) from the date of such ejectment, present to the Deputy Commissioner an application praying to be replaced in possession of such tenancy or portion; and the Deputy Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, after making a summary inquiry, replace him in possession in the prescribed manner.

Surrender and Abandonment.

Surrender of land by raiyat.

- 72. (1) A raivat not bound by a lease or other agreement for a fixed period may, at the end of any agricultural year, surrender his holding.
- (2) But, notwithstanding the surrender, the raiyat shall be liable to indemnify the landlord against any loss of the rent of the holding for the agricultural year next following the date of the surrender, unless. he gives to his landlord, at least four months before he surrenders notice of his intention to surrender.
- (3) The raiyat may, if he thinks fit, cause the notice to be served through the Court of the Deputy Commissioner within whose jurisdiction the holding or any portion of it is situate.
- (4) When a raivat has surrendered his holding, the landlord may enter on the holding and either let it to another tenant or take it into cultivation himself.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall affect any arrangement by which a raiyat and his landlord may arrange for a surrender of the whole or a part of the holding.

Abandonby raiyat.

- 73. (1) If a raivat voluntarily abandons the land held or cultivated ment of land by him, without notice to the landlord, and ceases either himself or through any other person to cultivate the land and to pay his rent as it falls due, the landlord may, at any time after the expiration of the agricultural year in which the raiyat so abandons and ceases to cultivate, enter on the holding and let it to another tenant or take it into cultivation himself.
 - (2) Before a landlord enters under this section, he shall send a notice to the Deputy Commissioner, in the prescribed manner, stating that he has treated the holding as abandoned and is about to enter on it accordingly; and the Deputy Commissioner shall cause a notice of the fact to be published in the prescribed manner.
 - (3) When a landlord enters under this section, the raiyet shall beentitled to apply to the Deputy Commissioner for the recovery of possession of the land at any time not later than the expiration of three years,.

105. (1) When any land is held subject to any prædial conditions, voluntary the tenant or the landlord may apply in writing to a Revenue-officer for commutation commutation of such conditions.

conditions.

- (2) The Revenue-officer shall thereupon cause a notice to be served on the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, and shall fix a day for considering the application; and on such day, or any day thereafter to which the hearing may be adjourned, shall proceed to inquire into the matter and to determine the amount which, in his judgment, is fairly and equitably payable in commutation of such conditions.
- (3) In calculating the said amount, the Revenue-officer shall have regard only to the conditions to which the tenant is liable in accordance with local custom or usage or with any contract made when the tenancy commenced, and to the money value of such conditions at the time of making such calculation, and shall follow the procedure provided in section 103:

(Secs. 106-108.)

Provided that the amount payable in commutation shall be so fixed that the total annual rent of the land, including such amount as aforesaid, shall not exceed the sum which would, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, be a fair and reasonable rent if the land were not held subject to any prædial conditions.

Power to order record of prædial conditions, with or without commutation.

- 106. (1) The Local Government may, in any case in which it is, in its opinion, expedient so to do, make an order directing either—
 - (a) that a record of all prædial conditions to which the lands within any local area or any estate, tenure or part thereof are subject shall be prepared, and a commutation of such conditions made, by a Revenue-officer; or
 - (b) that a record as aforesaid be made by a Revenue-officer without commutation of such conditions as aforesaid.
- (2) A notification in the Calcutta Gazette of an order under this section shall be conclusive evidence that the order has been duly made.
- (3) The record of prædial conditions shall be prepared in the prescribed manner.

Preparation of record.

- 107. (1) Whenever an order is made under section 106, the Revenue-officer shall thereupon proceed to prepare a record containing the following particulars, namely:—
 - (a) the name of each tenant;
 - (b) the name of his landlord;
 - (c) the rent payable for the lands held by each tenant at the time the record is being prepared;
 - (d) the prædial conditions to which all or any of such lands are subject;
 - (e) the amount, which in the judgment of the Revenue-officer, may fairly be deemed payable in commutation of such conditions, and
 - (f) any other prescribed particulars.
- (2) In calculating the amount payable in commutation of such conditions, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 105, sub-section (3).

Publication of record.

108. (I) When the Revenue-officer has prepared a record under section 107, he shall cause a draft of the same to be locally published in the prescribed manner and for the prescribed period, and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made to any entry therein or to any omission therefrom during the period of publication.

Local Extext—Since this Act has no local extent clause, it must be taken originally to have extended to those territories, at the time comprised in the province of Bengal, in which the Court of Wards Act, 1879 (Ben. Act 9 of 1879), which this Act amends, was in force. It is, therefore, in force by its own operation in Bihar and Orissa and in Western Bengal. As the Bengal Court of Wards Act, 1879, applies to the Sonthal Parganas, this Act must be taken to apply to that district. But its application is barred in the Angul District by the Angul Laws Regulation, 1915 (3 of 1915), s. 3 (2), printed in Vol. I, p. 864.

2. (1) In section 2 of the Chota Nagpur Encumbered Estates Act, Amendment 1876,[2] as amended by the Chota Nagpur Encumbered Estates (Amend- of section 2 of Act VI of ment) Act, 1884[2] (hereinafter cited as "the said Act"), for the words 1876. from "or, when any such property" to the words "such property is situate" the following shall be substituted, namely: -

"or the Deputy Commissioner within whose jurisdiction any such property belonging to such holder is situate, when-

- attachment has been made of, or a proclamation has been issued for the sale of, such property or any portion thereof, in execution of a decree or order of a Civil Court or a Revenue Court, or
- (ii) such Deputy Commissioner is satisfied, after making such inquiry as he may think fit, and after considering and placing on record all representations (if any) made by such · holder, that such holder has entered upon a course of wasteful extravagance likely to dissipate his property."

(Sec. 3.)

- (2) After the words "consent of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal," in the same section, the words "(to be obtained through the Board of Revenue)" shall be inserted.
- (3) After the words "during the continuance of such management," in the same section, the following shall be inserted, namely:—
 - "Provided as follows-

First, if any holder referred to in clause (ii) of this section petitions the Commissioner, while the inquiry referred to in that clause is being made, to postpone, until the petitioner has been heard, the passing of orders on any request that the Deputy Commissioner may make for applying the provisions of this Act to his case, and if a request as aforesaid be made by the Deputy Commissioner, the Commissioner shall appoint a day for hearing the petitioner; and if he appears, either in person or by agent, on the day so appointed and on the subsequent day (if any) to which the hearing is adjourned, the Commissioner shall not pass any order in the matter until he has been heard;

Secondly, if any holder referred to in clause (ii) of this section petitions the Board of Revenue, while any proceedings are pending before the Commissioner under proviso First, to postpone, until the petitioner has been heard, the passing of orders on any request that the Commissioner may make for the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor to the application of the provisions of this Act to his case, and if a request as aforesaid be made by the Commissioner, the Board of Revenue shall appoint a day for hearing the petitioner; and if he appears, either in person or by agent, on the day so appointed, and on the subsequent day (if any) to which the hearing is adjourned, the Board shall not pass any order in the matter until he has been heard;

Thirdly, the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor shall not be given in the case of any holder referred to in clause (ii) of this section unless either—such holder belongs to a family of political or social importance, or the Lieutenant-Governor is satisfied that it is desirable, in the interests of the tenants of such holder, that such consent should be given."

3. After section 2 of the said Act the following shall be inserted, namely:—

(Secs. 4-6.)

"2A. (1) For the purpose of making an application under section 2 Power of Deputy Comin the case of any holder, the Deputy Commissioner may, by written missioner to order, require the said holder to produce before him, on a date to be order prostated in such order,--

BENGAL ACT 2 or 1910.

[THE BENGAL MUNICIPAL (AMENDMENT AND VALIDATION) ACT, 1910.][1]

(23rd March, 1910.)

An Act to declare the meaning of certain words in clause (b) of section 66 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884.[2]

Whereas certain officers were directed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by orders issued under clause (b) of section 66 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884,[2] to exercise and perform the powers and duties of the Commissioners of certain Municipalities who had been superseded by orders issued under section 65 of that Act;[2]

And whereas the said officers, in exercise of the power conferred by section 9 of the said Act[2] on Commissioners at a meeting, recommended alterations in the numbers of the Commissioners of the said Municipalities:

And whereas the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal thereupon, by notifications issued upder sections 9 and 9A of the said Act,[3] altered the numbers of the Commissioner of the said Municipalities, with effect from the expiration of the period for which the former Commissioners were superseded:

And whereas doubts have been raised as to whether clause (b) of the said section 66 confers upon the persons appointed thereunder any of the powers of the Commissioners which are expressed by the said Act[⁵] to be exercisable only at a meeting of the Commissioners;

And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts, by declaring that the said clause (b) refers to powers exercisable at a meeting of the Commissioners:

And whereas it is also expedient to give retrospective effect to such declaration, in order to validate all action taken by bodies of Municipal Commissioners constituted in pursuance of orders issued under the said section 9 on the recommendation of the officers aforesaid;

[And whereas, in the case of one of the Municipalities hereinbefore referred to, namely, the Santipur Municipality, the number of the Commissioners was altered by a Notification No. 1726, dated the 2nd September, 1904, issued under section 9 of the said Act, instead of by notifications issued under both section 9 and section 9A;

And whereas it is expedient to validate the said notification;]

' It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

- 1. This Act may be called the Bengal Municipal (Amendment and Validation) Act, 1910.
- Meaning of clause (b) of section 66 of Bengal Act 3 of 1884.
- 2. The expression "all the powers and duties of the Commissioners" in clause (b) of section 66 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884,[1] shall include, and shall be deemed always to have included, powers and duties which may be exercised and performed at a meeting of the Commissioners, as well as powers and duties which may be exercised and performed otherwise than at such a meeting.

Validation of notification altering the number of the Commissioners of the Santipur Municipality. [3. The Notification No. 1726, dated the 2nd September, 1904, which was framed under section 9 of the said Act[2] and published at page 202 of Part IB of the Calcutta Gazette of the 7th day of September, 1904, shall be deemed to be as valid as if it had been rightly framed and followed in due course by a notification framed under section 9A of that Act;[2] and the number of the Commissioners of the Santipur Municipality, in the district of Nadia, shall accordingly be deemed to have been lawfully fixed at nine, with effect from the 2nd day of September, 1904, and shall remain at nine unless and until the number be altered hereafter by notifications published under sections 9 and 9A of the said Act.]

- (ii) nothing in clause (b) shall apply to a contract by which a raiyat binds himself to pay an enhanced rent in consideration of an improvement which has been or is to be effected in respect of the holding by, or at the expense of, his landlord, and to the benefit of which the raiyat is not otherwise entitled; but an enhanced rent fixed by such a contract shall be payable only when the improvement has been effected and, except when the raiyat is chargeable with default in respect of the improvement, only so long as the improvement exists and substantially produces its estimated effect in respect of the holding;
- (iii) when a raiyat has held his land at a specially low rate of rent in consideration of cultivating a particular crop for the convenience of the landlord, nothing in clause (b) shall prevent the raiyat from agreeing, in consideration of his being released from the obligation of cultivating that crop, to pay such rent as he may deem fair and equitable.

Enhancement of rent by suit.

- 35. The landlord of a holding held at a money-rent by an occupancy-raiyat may, subject to the provisions of this Act, institute a suit to enhance the rent on one or more of the following grounds, namely:—
 - (a) that the rate of rent paid by the raiyat is below the prevailing rate paid by occupancy-raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the same village or in neighbouring villages, and that there is no sufficient reason for his holding at so low a rate;

(b) that there has been a rise in the average local prices of staple food-crops during the currency of the present rent;

(c) that the productive powers of the land held by the raiyat have been increased by an improvement effected by, or at the expense of, the landlord during the currency of the present rent;

(Secs. 36-37.)

(d) that the productive powers of the land held by the raiyat have been increased by fluvial action.

· Explanation —" Fluvial action" includes a change in the course of a river, rendering irrigation from the river practicable when it was not previously practicable.

- 36. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground that the rate of Rules as to ent paid is below the prevailing rate,—
 - (a) in determining what is the prevailing rate, the Court shall of prevailing have regard to the rates generally paid during a period of not less than three years before the institution of the suit, and shall not decree an enhancement unless there is a substantial difference between the rate paid by the raiyat and the prevailing rate found by the Court;
 - (b) if, in the opinion of the Court, the prevailing rate of rent cannot be satisfactorily ascertained without a local inquiry, the Court may direct that a local inquiry be held under Order XXVI in the first Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, by such Revenue-officer as the Local Government may authorize in that behalf by rule made under rule 9 in the said Order;
 - (c) in determining under this section the rate of rent payable by a raiyat, his caste shall not be taken into consideration, unless it is proved that by local custom caste is taken into account in determining the rate; and whenever it is found that by local custom any description of raiyats hold land at favourable rates of rent, the rate shall be determined in accordance with that custom;
 - (d) in ascertaining the prevailing rate of rent, the amount of any enhancement authorized on account of a landlord's improvement shall not be taken into consideration;
 - (e) if a favourable rate has been determined under clause (c) for any description of raiyats, such rate may, if the Court thinks fit, be left out of consideration in ascertaining the prevailing rate;
 - (f) if the holding is held at a lump rental, the determination of the rent to be paid may be made by ascertaining the different classes of land comprised within the holding, and applying to the area of each class the prevailing rate paid on that class within the village or neighbouring villages.
- 87. In any district or part of a district to which this section is What may be extended by the Local Government by notification in the local official taken in certo be the " prevailing rate."

Gazette, whenever the prevailing rate for any class of land is to be ascertained under section 35, clause (a), by an examination of the rates at which lands of a similar description and with similar advantages are held within any village or villages, the highest of such rates at which, and at rates higher than which the larger portion of those lands is held may be taken to be the prevailing rate. .

Illustrations.

(a) The rates at which land of a similar description and with similar advantages is held in a village are as follows :-

Acres.										Rs.	. A.	P.

Then Rs. 2-4 is not the prevailing rate, because only 150 acres, or less than half, are held at that rate. Rupees 2 is not the prevailing rate, because 250 acres, or less than half, are held at that or a higher rate. Rupee 1-12 is the prevailing rate, because 400acres, or more than half, are held either at this or a higher rate; and this is the highest rate at which, and at rates higher than which, more than half the land is held.

(b) The rates at which land of a similar description and with similar advantages is held in a village are as follows :-

Acres.							•,					Rs. A. P.

Then for the reasons given in Illustration (a), neither Rs. 2 nor Re. 1-12 is the prevailing rate, nor is Re. 1-8 the prevailing rate, because only 350 acres (exactly half) are held at Re. 1-8 or a rate higher than Re. 1-8. In this case, Re. 1-4 is the prevailing rate, because more than half the lands are held at Re. 1-4 or higher rates, and this is the highest rate at which, and at rates higher than which, more than half the land is held.

Limit to of prevailing rate.

38. When the prevailing rate has once been determined by a Revenueenhancement officer under Chapter XI or by a Revenue Court in any suit under this Act, it shall not be liable to enhancement save on the ground and to the extent specified in section 35, clause (b) and section 39.

Rules as to enhancement on ground of rise in prices.

- 39. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of a rise in prices,—
 - (a) the Court shall compare the average prices during the decennial period immediately preceding the institution of the suit with the average prices during such other decennial period as it may appear equitable and practicable to take for comparison;

(Secs. 40-43.)

(b) the enhanced rent shall bear to the previous rent the same proportion as the average prices during the last decennial period bear to the average prices during the previous decen-. nial period taken for purposes of comparison:

Provided that, in calculating this proportion, the average prices during the later period shall be reduced by onethird of their excess over the average prices during the earlier period;

(c) if, in the opinion of the Court, it is not practicable to take the decennial periods prescribed in clause (a), the Court may, in its discretion, substitute any shorter periods therefor. 40. (1) Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of a land. Rules as to enhancement lord's improvement,on ground of (a) the Court shall not grant an enhancement, unless the improve- landlord's ment has been registered in accordance with this Act;

(b) in determining the amount of enhancement, the Court shall have regard to-

> (i) the increase in the productive powers of the land caused or likely to be caused by the improvement,

(ii) the cost of the improvement,

(iii) the cost of the cultivation required for utilizing the improvement, and

(iv) the existing rent, and the ability of the land to bear a higher rent.

(2) A decree under this section shall, on the application of the tenant or his successor in interest, be subject to re-consideration in the event of the improvement not producing or ceasing to produce the estimated effect.

41. Where an enhancement is claimed on the ground of an increase Rules as to in productive powers due to fluvial action,-

(a) the Court shall not take into account any increase which is increase in merely temporary or casual;

(b) the Court may enhance the rent to such an amount as it may to fluvial deem fair and equitable, but not as to give the landlord more than one-half of the value of the net increase in the produce of the land.

42. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections, the Court Enhancement shall not in any case decree any enhancement which is under the circum- be fair and stances of the case unfair or inequitable.

43. If the Court passing a decree for enhancement considers that the Power to immediate enforcement of the decree in its full extent will be attended order with hardship to the raiyat, it may direct that the enhancement shall be gradual; that is to say, that the rent shall increase yearly by degrees for any number of years not exceeding five until the limit of the enhancement decreed has been reached.

Limitation of enhancement

- 44. (1) A suit instituted for the enhancement of the rent of a holding right to bring on the ground that the rate of rent paid is below the prevailing rate, or on the ground of a rise in prices, shall not be entertained if within the fifteen years next preceding its institution the rent of the holding has been enhanced by a contract made after the tenth day of September, 1891, or if within the said period of fifteen years the rent has been commuted under section 47 or a decree has been passed under this Act or any enactment repealed by this Act enhancing the rent on either of the grounds aforesaid or on any ground corresponding thereto or dismissing the suit on the merits.
 - (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of rule 1 in Order XXIII in the first Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

Reduction of rent.

Reduction of rent.

- 45. (1) An occupancy-raivat holding at a money-rent may institute a suit for the reduction of his rent on the following grounds, and, except as hereinafter provided in the case of a diminution of the area of the holding, not otherwise, namely:—
 - (a) on the ground that the soil of the holding has, without the fault of the raiyat, become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or other specific cause, sudden or gradual, or
 - (b) on the ground that there has been a fall, not due to a temporary cause, in the average local prices of staple food-crops during the currency of the present rent.
- (2) In any suit instituted under this section, the Court may direct such reduction of the rent as it thinks fair and equitable.

Price-lists of staple foodcrops.

- 46. (1) The Collector of every district shall prepare, monthly or at shorter intervals, periodical lists of the market-prices of staple food-crops grown in such local areas as the Local Government may direct, and shall submit them to the Board of Revenue for approval or revision.
- (2) The Collector may, if so directed by the Local Government, prepare for any local area like price-lists relating to such past times as the Local Government thinks fit, and shall submit the lists so prepared to the Board of Revenue, for approval or revision.
- (3) The Collector shall, one month before submitting a price-list to. the Board of Revenue under this section, publish it in the prescribed manner within the local area to which it relates; and if any landlord or tenant of land within the local area, within the said period of one month, presents to him in writing any objection to the list, he shall submit the same to the Board of Revenue with the list.

- (4) The price-lists shall, when approved or revised by the Board of Revenue, be published in the Iocal official Gazette; and any manifest error in any such list discovered after its publication may be corrected by the Collector with the sanction of the Board of Revenue.
- (5) The Local Government shall cause to be compiled from the periodical lists prepared under this section lists of the average prices prevailing throughout each year, and shall cause them to be published annually in the local official Gazette.
- (6) In any proceedings under this Chapter for an enhancement or reduction of rent on the ground of a rise or fall in prices, the Court shall refer to the lists published under this section, and shall presume that the prices shown in the lists prepared for any year subsequent to the commencement of this Act are correct, and may presume that the prices shown in the lists prepared for any year prior to the commencement of this Act are correct, unless and until it is proved that they are incorrect.
- (7) The Local Government, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, shall make rules for determining what are to be deemed staple food-crops in any local area, and for the guidance of officers preparing price-lists under this section.

Commutation.

- 47. (1) Where an occupancy-raiyat pays for a holding rent in kind, Commutation or on the estimated value of a portion of the crop, or at rates varying of rent if with the crop, or partly in one of those ways and partly in another, or kind, partly in any of those ways and partly in cash, either the raiyat or his landlord may apply to have the rent commuted to a money-rent.
 - (2) The application may be made to-
 - (i) The Collector or Sub-divisional Officer, or
 - (ii) a Revenue-officer appointed by the Local Government, under the designation of Settlement-officer or Assistant Settlement-officer, for the purpose of making a survey and recordof-rights under Chapter XI, or
 - (iii) any other officer specially authorized in this behalf by the
 - (3) On the receipt of the application, the officer may determine the sum to be paid as money-rent, and may order that the raiyat shall, in lieu of paying his rent in kind or otherwise as aforesaid, pay the sum so determined.

(Sec. 48.)

- (4) In making the determination, the officer shall have regard to—
 - (a) the average money-rent payable by occupancy-raivats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity;
 - (b) the average value of the rent actually received by the landlord during the preceding ten years or during any shorter period for which evidence may be available;
 - (c) the charges incurred by the landlord in respect of irrigation under the system of rent in kind, and the arrangements made on commutation for continuing those charges;
 - (d) improvements effected by the landlord or by the occupancyraiyat in respect of the raiyat's holding, and
 - (e) the rules laid down in section 40 regarding enhancement of rent on the ground of a landlord's improvement.
- (5) The order shall be in writing, and shall state the grounds on which it is made and the time from which it is to take effect.
- (6) If the application is opposed, the officer shall decide whether, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable to grant it, and in cases in which—
 - (i) the landlord is, by physical or caste disability or on account of sex, unable to cultivate personally and is dependent for livelihood upon the share of the produce payable as rent, or
 - (ii) the land has been assigned to a religious or charitable endowment and the share of the produce payable as rent is applied for the purposes of such endowment, he shall, and in other cases he may, take into consideration the effect of commutation on the income of the landlord.

- (7) If the officer refuses the application he shall record in writing his reasons for the refusal.
- (8) All orders passed under this section, including an order refusing an application, shall be subject to appeal in the prescribed manner and to the prescribed officer.

48. (1) Where the rent of a holding has been commuted under section 47, it shall not, except on the ground of a landlord's improvement are to remain or of a subsequent alteration of the area of the holding, be enhanced for fifteen years; nor shall it be reduced for fifteen years, save on the ground of alteration in the area of the holding, or on the ground specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 45.

Period for which commuted rents unaltered.

(2) The said period of fifteen years shall be counted from the date on which the order takes effect under sub-section (5) of section 47.

CHAPTER VI.

Non-occupancy-raiyats.

- 49. This Chapter shall apply to raivats not having a right of occu-Application pancy, who are in this Act referred to as non-occupancy-raivats.
- 50. When a non-occupancy-raivat is admitted to the occupation of Initial rent of land, he shall become liable to pay such rent as may be agreed on between non-occupanhimself and his landlord at the time of his admission.
- 51. The rent of a non-occupancy-raivat shall not be enhanced except Conditions of by registered agreement or by agreement under section. 53:

enhancement of rent.

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent a landlord from recovering rent at the rate at which it has been actually paid for a continuous period of not less than three years immediately preceding the period for which the rent is claimed.

52. A non-occupancy-raivat shall, subject to the provisions of this Grounds on Act, be liable to ejectment on one or more of the following grounds, and which nonnot otherwise, namely :-

occupancyraivat mav be ejected.

- (a) on the ground that he has failed to pay an arrear of rent;
- (b) on the ground that he has used the land in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes of the tenancy, or that he has broken a condition consistent with this Act and on breach of which he is, under the terms of a contract between himself and his landlord, liable to be ejected;
- (c) where he has been admitted to occupation of the land under a registered lease, on the ground that the term of the lease has expired;
- (d) on the ground that he has refused to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent determined under section 53, or that the term for which he is entitled to hold at such a rent has expired.
- 53. (I) A suit for ejectment on the ground of refusal to agree to an Conditions of enhancement of rent shall not be instituted against a non-occupancy-ejectment on raiyat unless the landlord has tendered to the raiyat an agreement to pay refusal to

- (2) A landlord desiring to tender an agreement to a raiyat under this section may file it in the office of such Court or officer as the Local Government appoints in this behalf, for service on the raiyat. The Court or officer shall forthwith cause it to be served on the raiyat in the prescribed manner; and, when it has been so served, it shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been tendered.
- (3) If a raiyat on whom an agreement has been served under subsection (2) executes it, and within one month from the date of service files it in the office from which it issued, it shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following.
- (4) When an agreement has been executed and filed by a raiyat under sub-section (3), the Court or officer in whose office it is so filed shall forthwith cause a notice of its being so executed and filed to be served on the landlord in the prescribed manner.
- (5) If the raiyat does not execute the agreement and file it under subsection (3), he shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to have refused to execute it.
- (6) If a raiyat refuses to execute an agreement tendered to him under this section, and the landlord thereupon institutes a suit to eject him, the Court shall determine what rent is fair and equitable for the holding.
- (7) If the raiyat agrees to pay the rent so determined, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of his holding at that rent for a term of five years from the date of the agreement, but on the expiration of that term shall be liable to ejectment under the conditions mentioned in section 52, unless he has acquired a right of occupancy.
- (8) If the raivat does not agree to pay the rent so determined the Court shall pass a decree for ejectment.
- (9) In determining what rent is fair and equitable, the Court shall have regard to the rent generally paid by raiyats for land of a similar description and with like advantages in the same village.
- (10) A decree for ejectment passed under this section shall take effect from the end of the agricultural year in which it is passed.

Explanation of "admitted to occupation."

54. Where a raiyat has been in occupation of land, and a lease is executed with a view to a continuance of his occupation, he is not to be deemed to be admitted to occupation by that lease for the purposes of this Chapter, notwithstanding that the lease may purport to admit him to occupation.

(Secs. 55-57.)

CHAPTER IX.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO RENT.

Rules and presumptions as to amount of rent.

Rules and presumptions as to fixity of rent.

- 58. (1) Where a tenure-holder or raiyat in a permanently-settled area, and his predecessors in interest, have held at a rent or rate of rent which has not been changed from the time of the Permanent Settlement, the rent of rate of rent shall not be liable to be increased except on the ground of an alteration in the area of the tenure or holding.
- (2) If it is proved in any suit or other proceeding under this Act or under any other law that either a tenure-holder or raiyat and his predecessors in interest have held land situated in a permanently-settled area at a rent or rate of rent which has not been changed during the twenty years immediately before the institution of the suit or proceeding, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that they have held at that rent or rate of rent from the time of the Permanent Settlement:

Provided that, if it is required by or under any enactment that in any local area, tenancies, or any classes of tenancies, at fixed rents or rates of rent shall be registered as such on or before a date specified by or under the enactment, the foregoing presumption shall not after that date apply to any tenancy or, as the case may be, to any tenancy of that class, in that local area unless the tenancy has been so registered.

- (3) The operation of this section, so far as it relates to land held by a raiyat, shall not be affected by the fact of the land having been seperated from other land which formed with it a single holding, or amalgamated with other land into one holding.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall apply to a tenure held for a term of years or determinable at the will of the landlord.

59. If a question arises as to the amount of a tenant's rent or the conditions under which he holds in any agricultural year, he shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, to hold at the same rent and under the same conditions as in the last preceding agricultural year.

Presumption as to amount of rent and conditions of holding.

(Sec. 60.)

Alteration of rent on alteration of area.

60. (I) Every tenant shall-

Alteration of rent in respect of alter-

- (a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved by measure-pect of alterment to be in excess of the area for which rent has been atton in area previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to the tenure or holding of land which, having previously belonged to the tenure or holding, was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made; and
- (b) be entitled to a reduction of rent in respect of any deficiency proved by measurement to exist in the area of his tenure or holding as compared with the area for which tent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenure or holding by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.
- (2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Court shall, if so required by any party to the suit, have regard to—
 - (a) the origin, and conditions of the tenancy, for instance, whether the nent was a consolidated rent for the entire tenure or holding;
 - (b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord;
 - (c) the length of time during which the tenancy has lasted without dispute as to rent or area; and
 - (d) the length of the measure used or in local use at the time of the origin of the tenancy as compared with that used or in local use at the time of the institution of the suit.
- (3) In determining the amount to be added to the rent, the Court shall have regard to the rates payable by tenants of the same class for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinty, and, in the case of a tenure-holder, to the profits to which he is entitled, in respect of the rent of his tenure; and shall not in any case fix any rent which, in the circumstances of the case, is unfair or inequitable.
- (4) The amount abated from the rent shall bear the same proportion to the rent previously payable as the diminution of the total yearly value of the tenure or holding bears to the previous total yearly value thereof; or, in default of satisfactory proof of the yearly value of the land lost, shall bear to the rent previously payable the same proportion as the diminution of area bears to the previous area of the tenure or holding.

(Secs. 61-62.)

(5) When, in a suit under this section, the landlord or tenant is unable to indicate any particular land as held in excess, the rent to be added on account of the excess area may be calculated at the average rate of rent paid on all the lands of the holding, exclusive of such excess area.

(6) When, in a suit under this section, the landlord or tenant proves that, at the time the measurement on which the claim is based was made, there existed, in respect of the estate or permanent tenure or part thereof in which the tenure or holding is situate, a practice of settlement being made after measurement of the land assessed with rent, it may be presumed that the area of the tenure or holding specified in any lease or counterpart engagement, or (where there is an entry of area in a counterfoil receipt corresponding to the entry in the rent-roll) in any rent-roll relating to it, has been entered in such lease, counterpart engagement or rent-roll after measurement.

Reclamation of waste land.

- 61. (1) No waste land may be reclaimed by a raivat without the written consent of his landlord except where the land was, before such reclamation, included in the tenancy of the raivat and he has acquired a right of occupancy in it.
- (2) Where the consent of the landlord is required by sub-section (1) for the reclamation of waste land, such consent shall be deemed to have been given if, within four years from the date on which the raiyat commenced his reclamation of the land, the landlord has not made an application to the Collector for his ejectment:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply to waste land which is not included in a village as defined in clause (25) of section 3.

- (3) Waste land which has been reclaimed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be assessable to rent according to the terms of any agreement entered into by the parties before or after the reclamation. In the absence of any such agreement, the Collector may, on the application of either of the parties, settle a fair and equitable rent for the land, and, in doing so, shall have regard to—
 - (i) the provisions of section 60, and
 - (ii) any local usage or arrangement between the parties which is, in his opinion, fair and equitable.

Payment of Rent.

Instalments of rent.

62. (1) Subject to agreement or established usage, a money-rent payable by a tenant shall be paid in two equal instalments falling due on the last day of each half of the agricultural year.

(Secs. 63-66.)

- (2) Subject to agreement or established usage, a produce-rent payable by a tenant shall be payable at the time of harvest, and shall be deemed to have fallen due on the last day of the Oriya month during which the crop is harvested.
- 63. (1) Every tenant shall pay each instalment of rent before sunset Time and place for the day on which it falls due.
- (2) The payment shall, except in cases where a tenant is allowed from under this Act to deposit his rent, be made at the landlord's village office, or at such other convenient place as may be appointed in that behalf by the landlord:

Provided that the Local Government may make rules, either generally or for any specified local area, authorizing a tenant to pay his rent by postal money-order.

- (3) Any instalment or part of an instalment of rent not duly paid at or before the time when it falls due shall be deemed an arrear.
- 64. (1) When a tenant makes a payment on account of rent, he may appropriation declare the year or the year and instalment to which he wishes the pay-of payments. ment to be credited, and the payment shall be credited accordingly.
- (2) If he does not make any such declaration, the payment may be credited to the account of such year and instalment as the landlord thinks fit.

Receipts and Accounts.

65. (1) Every tenant who makes a payment on account of rent to his Tenant maklandlord shall be entitled to obtain forthwith from the landlord a written to land receipt for the amount paid by him, signed by the landlord.

(2) The landlord shall prepare and retain a counterfoil of the receipt. entitled to a

(3) The receipt and counterfoil shall specify such of the several particulars shown in the form of receipt given in Schedule II as can be specified by the landlord at the time of payment:

Provided that the Local Government may prescribe or sanction a modified form, either generally or for any particular local area or class of cases.

- (4) If a receipt does not contain substantially the particulars required by this section, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, to be an acquittance in full of all demands for rent up to the date on which the receipt was given.
- 66. (1) Where a landlard admits that all rent payable by a manufactor to the end of the agricultural year has been paid, the tenut that he was a entitled to receive from the landlord, free of charge, within three months. after the end of the year, a receipt in full discharge of all rent falling due to the end of the year, signed by the landlord.

- (2) Where the landlord does not so admit, the tenant shall be entitled, on paying a fee of four annas, to receive, within three months after the end of the year, a statement of account specifying the several particulars. shown in the form of account given in Schedule II or in such other form as may be prescribed by the Local Government, either generally or for any particular local area or class of cases.
- (3) The landlord shall prepare and retain a copy of the statement, containing similar particulars.

Penalties and fine for withholding receipts and statements of account and counterparts.

- 67. (1) If a landlord, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects. to deliver to a tenant a receipt, containing the particulars prescribed by section 65, for any rent paid by the tenant, the tenant may, within three months from the date of payment, institute a suit to recover from himfailing to keep such penalty, not exceeding double the amount of value of that rent, asthe Court thinks fit.
 - (2) If a landlord, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects to deliver to a tenant demanding the same either the receipt in full discharge or, if the tenant is not entitled to such a receipt, the statement of account for any year prescribed in section 66, the tenant may, within the next ensuing agricultural year, institute a suit to recover from him: such penalty as the Court thinks fit, not exceeding double the aggregate. amount or value of all rent paid by the tenant to the landlord during the year for which the receipt or account should have been delivered.

Procedure where officer appointed.

- 80. (1) When a Collector appoints an officer under section 79, the Collector may, in his discretion, direct the officer to associate with himself any other persons as assessors, and may give him instructions regarding the number, qualifications and mode of selection of those assessors (if any), and the procedure to be followed in making the appraisement or division; and the officer shall conform to the instructions so given.
- (2) The officer shall, before making an appraisement or division, give notice to the landlord and tenant of the time and place at which the appraisement or division will be made; but if either the landlord or the tenant fails to attend, either personally or by agent, he may proceed ex parte.
- (3) When the officer has made the appraisement or division, he shall submit a report of his proceedings to the Collector.

(Secs. 81-83.)

(4) The Collector shall consider the report, and, after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, and making such inquiry (if any) as he may think necessary, shall pass such order thereon as he thinks iust.

(5) The Collector may, if he thinks fit, refer any question in dispute between the parties for the decision of a Revenue Court; but, subject as aforesaid, his order shall be final and shall, on application to a Revenue Court by the landlord or the tenant, be enforceable as a decree.

(6) Where the officer makes an appraisement, the appraisement papers shall be filed in the Collector's office. 81. (1) Where rent is taken by appraisement of the produce, the Rights and tenant shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the produce.

(2) Where rent is taken by division of the produce, the tenant shall of crop. be entitled to the exclusive possession of the whole produce until it is divided, but shall not be entitled to remove any portion of the produce from the threshing-floor at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due division thereof at the proper time.

(3) In either case the tenant shall be entitled to cut and harvest the produce in due course of husbandry without any interference on the part of the landlord.

(4) If the tenant removes any portion of the produce at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due appraisement or division thereof at the proper time, the produce shall be deemed to have been as full as the fullest crop of the same description appraised in the neighbourhood on similar land for that harvest.

- (e) the renewal or re-construction of any of the foregoing works, or alterations therein or additions thereto; and
- (f) the erection of a suitable dwelling-house for the raiyat and his family, together with all necessary out-offices.
- (3) But no work executed by the raiyat of a holding shall be deemed to be an improvement for the purposes of this Act if it substantially diminishes the value of his landlord's property.
- 87. (1) Where a raiyat holds at fixed rates or has an occupancy-right Right to in his holding, neither the raiyat nor his landlord, shall, as such, be improvement entitled to prevent the other from making an improvement in respect of the holding, except on the ground that he is willing to make it himself.
- (2) If both the raiyat and his landlord wish to make the same improve- holding ment, the raiyat shall have the prior right to make it, unless it affects another holding or other holdings under the same landlord.
 - 88. If a question arises between the raiyat and his landlord-
 - (a) as to the right to make an improvement, or
- (b) as to whether a particular work is an improvement, neght to make the Collector may, on the application of either party, decide the question; improvement, and his decision shall be final.
- 89. (1) A non-occupancy-raiyat shall be entitled to construct, main-Right to tain and repair a well for the irrigation of his holding, with all works make incidental thereto, and to erect a suitable dwelling-house for himself and in case of his family, with all necessary out-offices; but shall not, except as afore-occupancy-said and as next hereinafter provided, be entitled to make any other holding, improvement in respect of his holding without his landlord's permission in writing.
- (2) A non-occupancy-raivat who would, but for the want of his land-lord's permission in writing, be entitled to make an improvement in respect of his holding, may, if he desires that the improvement be madedeliver or cause to be delivered, to his landlord a request in writing calling upon him to make the improvement within a reasonable time; if the landlord is unable or neglects to comply with that request, may make the improvement himself.
- 90. (1) A landlord may, by application to such Revenue-officer as the Registration Local Government may appoint, register any improvement which he has improved lawfully made, or which has been lawfully made at his expense, or which ments. he has assisted a tenant in making.
- (2) The application shall be in such form, shall contain such information, and shall be verified in such manner, by local inquiry or otherwise, as the Local Government may, by rule, direct.

(Secs. 91-92.)

- (3) The officer receiving the application may reject it if it has not been made within twelve months—
 - (a) in the case of improvements made before the commencement of this Act—from the commencement of this Act;
 - (b) in the case of improvements made after the commencement of this Act—from the date of the completion of the work.

Application to record evidence as to improvement.

- 91. (1) If any landlord or tenant of a holding desires that evidence relating to any improvement made in respect thereof be recorded, he may apply to a Revenue-officer, who shall thereupon, at a time and place of which notice shall be given to the parties, record the evidence, unless he considers that there are no reasonable grounds for making the application, or it is made to appear that the subject-matter thereof is under inquiry in a Revenue Court.
- (2) When any matter has been recorded under this section, the record thereof shall be admissible in evidence in every subsequent proceeding between the landlord and tenant or any persons claiming under them.

Componsation for raiyat's improvements.

- 92. (1) Every raivat who is ejected from his holding shall be entitled to compensation for improvements which have been made in respect thereof in accordance with this Act by him, or by his predecessor in interest, and for which compensation has not already been paid.
- (2) Whenever a Court makes a decree or order for the ejectment of a raiyat, it shall determine the amount of compensation (if any) due under this section to the raiyat for improvements, and shall make the decree or order of ejectment conditional on the payment of that amount to the raiyat.
- (3) No compensation under this section for an improvement shall be claimable where the raiyat has made the improvement in pursuance of a contract or under a lease binding him, in consideration of some substantial advantage to be obtained by him, to make the improvement without compensation, and he has obtained that advantage.
- (4) Improvements made by a raiyat between the twenty-seventh day of June, 1892, and the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with this Act.
- (5) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, make rules requiring the Court to associate with itself, for the purpose of estimating the compensation to be awarded under this section for an improvement, such number of assessors as the Local Government thinks fit, and determining the qualifications of those assessors and the mode of selecting them.

(Secs. 93-94.)

- 93. (1) In estimating the compensation to be awarded under section Proceeds 92 for an improvement, regard shall be had
 - compensation is to be (a) to the amount by which the value, or the produce, of the hold-estimated, ing, or the value of that produce, is increased by the improvement;
 - (b) to the condition of the improvement, and the probable duration of its effects;
 - (c) to the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement;
 - (d) to any reduction or remission of rent or any other advantage given by the landlord to the raiyat in consideration of the improvement: and
 - (e) in the case of a reclamation or of the conversion of, unirrigated into irrigated land, to the length of time during which the raiyat has had the benefit of the improvement at an un-, enhanced rent.
- (2) When the amount of the compensation has been assessed the Court may, if the landlord and raivat agree, direct that instead of being paid wholly in money, it shall be made wholly or partly in some other way.

Acquisition of land for building and other purposes.

94. (1) The Collector may, on the application of the landlord of a Acquisition holding.

of land for building and

and on being satisfied that he is desirous of acquiring the holding or other purpart thereof for some reasonable and sufficient purpose having relation to the good of the holding or of the tenure or estate in which it is comprised, such as the use of the land for a village road, tank for drinkingwater or embankment, or for any charitable, religious or educational purpose, or for the purpose of mining, manufacture, drainage or irrigation, or as building ground for any such purpose, or for access to land used or required for any such purpose.

authorise the acquisition thereof by the landlord upon such conditions as the Collector may think fit, and require the tenant to sell his interest in the holding or part to the landlord upon such terms as may be approved by the Collector, including full compensation to the tenant.

(2) If the landlord tenders to the tenant such sum as the Collector has approved under sub-section (1) as payment for any land, and the tenant refuses to receive the same, the Collector may, on the landlord depositing the said sum with the Collector, give possession of the landlord in the prescribed manner.

(Secs. 95-97.)

Sub-letting.

Restriction on subletting.

- 95. (1) If a raiyat sub-lets otherwise than by a registered instrument, the sub-lease shall not be valid against his landlord unless made with the landlord's consent.
- (2) A sub-lease by a raiyat shall not be valid, nor shall it be admitted to registration under the Indian Registration Act, 1908[1] if it purports XVI of 1908 to create a term exceeding nine years.
- (3) Where a raiyat has, without the consent of his landlord, granted a sub-lease by an instrument registered before the commencement of this Act, the sub-lease shall not be valid for more than nine years from the commencement of this Act.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall apply to a sub-lease granted by a bajiaftidar raiyat.

Usufructuary Mortgages.

Restriction on usufructuary mortgage.

- 96. (1) No transfer by a raiyat of his holding or any portion thereof by usufructuary mortgage for any period, express or implied, which exceeds or might in any possible event exceed nine years shall be valid or be admitted to registration under the Indian Registration Act, 1908,[1] XVI of 1908 unless it has been made with the express consent of his landlord.
- (2) Where a raivat has, without the consent of his landlord, executed an usufructuary mortgage by an instrument registered before the commencement of this Act, such mortgage shall not be valid against the landlord for more than nine years from the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall apply to a mortgage executed by a bajiaftidar raiyat.

Surrender and Abandonment.

- 97. (1) A raivat not bound by a lease or other agreement for a fixed period may, at the end of any agricultural year, surrender his holding.
- (2) But, notwithstanding the surrender, the raivat shall be liable to indemnify the landlord against any loss of the rent of the holding for the agricultural year next following the date of the surrender, unless he gives to his landlord, at least three months before he surrenders, notice in writing of his intention to surrender.

(Sec. 98.)

- (3) When a raiyat has surrendered his holding, the Court shall in the following cases, for the purposes of sub-section (2), presume, until the contrary is shown, that such notice was so given, namely:—
 - (a) if the raiyat takes a new holding in the same village from the same landlord during the agricultural year next following the surrender:
 - (b) if the raiyat ceases, at least three months before the end of the agricultural year at the end of which the surrender is made, to reside in the village in which the surrendered holding is situate.
- (4) The raiyat may, if he thinks fit, cause the notice to be served through the Revenue Court within the jurisdiction of which the holding or any portion of it is situate.
- (5) When a raiyat has surrendered his holding, the landlord may enter on the holding and either let it to another tenant or take it into cultivation bimself.
- (6) When a holding is subject to an incumbrance secured by a registered instrument, the surrender of the holding shall not be valid unless the laudlord is informed of the incumbrance, and the surrender is made with the consent, in writing, of the landlord and the incumbrancer.
- (?) Save as provided in sub-section (6), nothing in this section shall affect any arrangement by which a raiyat and his landlord may arrange for a surrender of the whole or a part of the holding.
- 98. (1) If a non-resident raiyat, or a resident raiyat who voluntarily Abandon-abandons his residence in the village, ceases to cultivate his holding ment, either by himself or some other person, without giving notice to his land-lord and without arranging for payment of his rent as it falls due, the landlord may, at any time after the expiration of the agricultural year in which the raiyat thus ceases to cultivate, enter on the holding and let it
- (2) Before a landlord enters under this section, he shall file a notice in the prescribed form in the Collectors office stating that he has treated the holding as obandoned and is about to enter on it accordingly; and the Collector shall cause a notice to be published in such manner as the Local Government may, by rule direct.

to another tenant, or take it into cultivation himself.

(8) When a landlord enters under this section, the raiyat shall be entitled to institute a suit for recovery of possession of the land at any time not later than the expiration of two years, or, in the case of a non-eccupancy-rayat, six menths, from the date of the publication of the notice; and thereupon the Court may, on being satisfied that the raiyat

did not voluntarily abandon his holding, order recovery of possession on such terms (if any) with respect to compensation to persons injured and payment of arrears of rent as to the Court may seem just.

(4) Where the whole or part of holding has been sub-let by a registered instrument, the landlord shall, before entering under this section, on the holding, offer the whole holding to the sub-lessee for the remainder of the term of the sub-lease at the rent paid by the raiyat who has ceased to cultivate the holding, and on condition of the sub-lessee paying up all arrears due from that raiyat. Provided that no such direction shall be made until reasonable notice has been given to the parties concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

- 126. (I) Any person aggrieved by an entry of a rent settled in a Jurascution Settlement Rent Roll prepared under sections 119 to 124 and incor- of Civil porated in a record-of-rights finally published under section 116, or by m matters an omission to settle a rent for entry in such Settlement Rent Roll, may relating to institute a suit in the Civil Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit for the possession of the land to which the entry relates or in respect of which the omission was made.
- (2) Such suit must be instituted within six months from the date of the certificate of final publication of the record-of-rights, or, if an appeal has been presented to a Revenue authority under section 125, then within six months from the date of the disposal of such appeal.
- (3) Such suit may be instituted on any of the following grounds, and on no others, namely:-
 - (a) that the land is not liable to payment of rent;
 - (b) that the land, although entered in the record-of-rights as being held rent-free, is liable to the payment of rent;
 - (c) that the relation of landlord and tenant does not exist;
 - (d) that land has been wrongly recorded as part of a particular estate, sub-proprietary interest or tenancy, or wrongly omitted from the lands of an estate, sub-proprietary interest or tenancy;
 - (e) that the tenant belongs to a class different from that to which he is shown in the record-of-rights as belonging;
 - (f) that the Revenue Officer has not postponed the operation of the settled rent under the provisions of section 139, proviso (a), or has wrongly fixed the date from which it is to take effect under that clause;
 - (g) that the special conditions and incidents of the tenancy or any right of way or other easement attaching to the land which is the subject of the tenancy, have not, or has not, been recorded, or have, or has, been wrongly recorded.

(Secs. 127-128.)

The Secretary of State for India in Council shall not be made a defendant in any such suit, unless the Government is landlord or tenant of the land to which the aforesaid entry relates or in respect of which the aforesaid omission was made.

- (4) If it appears to the Court that the entry of rent settled is incorrect, it shall, in case (a) or case (c) mentioned in sub-section (3), declare that no rent is payable, and shall in any other case settle a fair rent;
- and, in any case referred to in clause (f) or clause (g) of the said subsection (3), the Court may declare the date from which the rent settled is to take effect, or pass such order relating to the entry as it may think fit.
- (5) When the Court has declared under sub-section (4) that no rent is payable, the entry to the contrary effect in the record-of-rights shall be deemed to be cancelled.
- (6) In settling a fair rent under sub-section (4), the Court shall be guided by the rents of the other tenures or holdings of the same class comprised in the same Settlement Rent Roll, as settled under sections 119 to 124.
- (7) Any rent settled by the Court under sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have been duly settled in place of the rent entered in the Settlement Rent Roll.
- (8) Save as provided in this section, no suit shall be brought in any Civil Court in respect of the settlement of any rent or the omission to settle any rent under sections 119 to 124.
- (9) When a Civil Court has passed final orders or a decree under this section, it shall notify the same to the Collector of the district who shall make a note of such orders or decree in the record-of-rights finally published under section 116, sub-section (2), and such note shall be deemed to be part of the record.

Presumptions as to rents settled under sections 119 to 125.

- 127. Subject to the provisions of section 126, all rents settled under sections 119 to 124 and entered in a record-of-rights finally published under section 116, or settled under section 125, shall be deemed to have been correctly settled and to be fair and equitable rents within the meaning of this Act.
- Part III.—Settlement of Rents and Decision of Disputes in cases where a settlement of land-revenue is not being or is not about to be made.

(Secs. 194-196.)

Special register of suits.

194. The Local Government may direct that all suits, or any specified class of suits, under this Act shall be registered, not in the register of civil suits kept under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,[1] but in such V of 1908. other registers as it may prescribe.

Successive rent suits.

195. Subject to the provisions of rule 1 in Order XXIII in the first. Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, where a landlord has in- v of 1908. stituted a suit against a raiyat for the recovery of any rent of his holding, the landlord shall not institute another suit against him for the recovery of any rent of that holding until after three months from the date of the institution of the previous suit.

Agreements and compromises.

- 196. (1) The provisions of rule 3 in Order XXIII in the first Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall not apply to any suit V of 1908, under this Act.
- (2) If any suit under this Act is adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise, or if the defendant satisfies the plaintiff in respect to the whole or any part of the matter of the suit, the Court shall pass a decree in accordance with such agreement, compromise or satisfaction, so far as it relates to the suit:

Provided that no decree shall be passed in accordance with any agreement or compromise the terms of which, if they were embodied in a contract, could not be enforced under this Act.

- (3) Where any agreement or compromise has been made for the purpose of settling a dispute as to the rent payable, the Court shall, in order to ascertain whether the effect of such agreement or compromise would be to enhance the rent in a manner, or to an extent, not allowed by section 34 in the case of a contract, record evidence as to the rent which was legally payable immediately before the period in respect of which the dispute arose.
- (4) Where the terms of any agreement or compromise are such as might unfairly or inequitably affect the rights of third parties, the Court shall not pass a decree in accordance with such agreement or compromise unless and until it is satisfied by evidence that the statements made by the parties thereto are correct.

Illustration.—A, a proprietor, agrees that B, his tenant, shall be recorded as an occupancy-raivat: this affects the rights of the tenants of B. The Court must, under sub-section (4), inquire whether B is a tenure-holder or a raivat as defined in Chapter II. If the Court finds on the evidence that B is a raivat, it may pass a decree in accordance with the agreement, but shall not do so if it finds that B is a tenure-holder.

(5) A decree passed in accordance with any lawful agreement, compromise or satisfaction shall be final so far as it relates to so much of the subject-matter of the suit as is dealt with by such agreement, compromise or satisfaction.

shall not be entertained unless the landlord has served, in the prescribed manner, a notice on the tenant specifying the particular misuse or breach complained of, and, where the misuse or breach is capable of remedy, requiring the tenant to remedy the same, and, in any case, to pay reasonable compensation for the misuse or breach, and the tenant has failed to comply within a reasonable time with that request.

- (2) A decree passed in favour of a landlord in any such suit shall declare the amount of compensation which would reasonably be payable to the plaintiff for the misuse or breach, and whether, in the opinion of the Court, the misuse or breach is capable of remedy, and shall fix a period during which it shall be open to the defendant to pay that amount to the plaintiff, and, where the misuse or breach is declared to be capable of remedy, to remedy the same.
- (3) The Court may, from time to time, for special reasons, extend a period fixed by it under sub-section (2).
- (4) If the defendant, within the period or extended period (as the case may be) fixed by the Court under this section, pays the compensation mentioned in the decree, and, where the misuse or breach is declared by the Court to be capable of remedy, remedies the misuse or breach to the satisfaction of the Court, the decree shall not be executed.

208. The following rules shall apply in the case of every raiyat ejected from a holding:—

- (a) when the raiyat has, before the date of his ejectment, sown or planted crops in any land comprised in the holding, he shall be entitled, at the option of the landlord, either to retain possession of that land and to use it for the purpose of tending and gathering in the crops, or to receive from the landlord the value of the crops as estimated by the Court executing the decree for ejectment;
- (b) when the raiyat has, before the date of his ejectment, prepared for sowing any land comprised in his holding, but has not sown or planted crops in that land, he shall be entitled to receive from the landlord the value of the labour and capital expended by him in so preparing the land, as estimated by the Court executing the decree for ejectment, together with reasonable interest on that value;
- (c) but a raiyat shall not be entitled to retain possession of any land or receive any sum in respect thereof under this section where, after the commencement of proceedings by the landloid for his ejectment, he has cultivated or prepared the land contrary to local usage;

- (d) if the landlord elects under this section to allow a raiyat to retain possession of the land, the raiyat shall pay to the landlord, for the use and occupation of the land during the period for which he is allowed to retain possession of the same; such rent as the Court executing the decree for ejectment may deem reasonable.
- 209. When a plaintiff institutes a suit in a Civil Court for the eject-Power for ment of a trespasser, he may, if he thinks fit, claim as alternative relief fair reat as that the defendant be declared liable to pay for the land in his possession alternative to a fair and equitable rent, to be determined by the Court; and the Court ejectment, may grant such relief accordingly.
- 210. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 140, the Court having Appleation jurisdiction to determine a suit for the possession of laud may, on the mediate of application of either the landlord or the tenant of the land, determine all tenancy or any of the following matters, namely:—
 - (a) the situation, quantity and boundaries of the land;
 - (b) the name and description of the tenant thereof (if any);
 - (c) the class to which he belongs, that is to say, whether he is a tenure-holder, bajiaftidar, raiyat holding at fixed rates, occupancy-raiyat, non-occupancy-raiyat, under-raiyat or chandnadar, and, if he is a tenure-holder, whether he is a permanent tenure-holder or not, and whether his rent is liable to enhancement during the continuance of his tenure; and
 - (d) the rent payable by him at the time of the application.
- (2) If, in the opinion of the Court, any of these matters cannot be satisfactorily determined without a local inquiry, the Court may direct that a local inquiry be held under Order XXVI in the first Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,[1] by such Revenue-officer as the Local Government may authorise in that behalf by rule made under rule 9 in the said Order.
- (3) The order on any application under this section shall have the effect of, and be subject to the like appeal as, a decree.

CHAPTER XV.[1]

SUMMARY PROCEDURE FOR THE RECOVERY OF RENTS UNDER THE BIHAR AND ORISSA PUBLIC DEMANDS RECOVERY ACT, 1914.[2]

Recovery of arrears of rent under the certificate procedure in certain areas.

- 211. (1) Any landlord (other than the Government) whose land is situate in an area for which a record-of-rights has been prepared and finally published, and in which such record is maintained, may apply to the Local Government, through the Collector of the district in which his land is situate, for the application of the procedure prescribed by the Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914, to the recovery of the arrears of rent which he alleges are, or may accrue, due to him for lands in such area.
- (2) The Local Government may reject any such application, or may allow it subject to such terms and conditions as it may see fit to impose, and may at any time add to or vary any terms or conditions so imposed, or withdraw its allowance of the application, without, in any of these cases, assigning any reason for its action.
- (3) When any such application has been allowed, the landlord may make a requisition in writing, in the form prescribed, to such Revenue-officer as the Local Government may appoint for the purpose of this section, to perform the functions of a Certificate-officer under the Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914, for the recovery of any arrears of rent which he alleges are due to him from any tenant.

- (4) Every such requisition shall be signed and verified by the landlord making it, in the manner prescribed by rule 1 in Schedule II to the said Act, as amended for the time being by rules made under section 39 thereof, and shall be chargeable with a fee of the amount which would be payable under the Court-fees Act, 1870, in respect of a plaint for the recovery of a sum of money equal to that stated in the requisition as being due.
- (5) On receipt of any such requisition, the said Revenue-officer may, in accordance with such rules as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, and if he is satisfied that the arrear is due, sign a certificate, in the prescribed form, stating that the arrear is due, and shall include in the certificate the fee paid under sub-section (4), and shall cause the certificate to be filed in his office:

^[1] This Chapter XV was substituted for the original Chapter XV by the Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914 (B. and O. Act 4 of 1914), s. 69, and Sch. III, Pt. II, printed, post, p. 610.
[2] B. and O. Act 4 of 1914, printed, post, p. 557.

(Sec. 211.)

Provided that-

- (a) no certificate shall be signed for the recovery of arrears of rent of a tenancy regarding which a suit has been instituted in a Revenue Court for the alteration of the rent payable by the tenant or the determination of his status as a tenant, in respect of the period during which it is alleged in the requisition made under sub-section (3) that the arrears of rent sought to be recovered have accrued; and
- (b) if, after the signing of a certificate, it is found that such a suit was instituted in a Revenue Court before the certificate was signed, such certificate shall be cancelled.
- (6) The person in whose favour any certificate is signed under subsection (5) shall be deemed to be the certificate-holder for the amount mentioned in the certificate, and the person against whom the certificate is signed shall be deemed to be the certificate-debtor for the said amount; and all proceedings taken by the Certificate-officer for the recovery of such amount shall be taken at the instance of the first-mentioned person, and at his cost and responsibility, and not otherwise.
- (7) The Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914, with such restrictions and modifications (if any) as may be prescribed, shall apply to the execution, and to all proceedings arising out of the execution, of certificates filed under sub-section (5).
- (8) No landlord shall, during the pendency of any proceedings under this section, institute a suit in a Revenue Court for the recovery of any arrears of rent in respect of which he has made a requisition under subsection (3):
- and, subject to the provisions of section 43 of the Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914, no tenant shall, after the signing of any certificate against him under sub-section (5) of this section, institute a suit in, or apply to, a Revenue Court for the alteration of the rent payable by him, or the determination of his status as a tenant, in respect of the period during which the arrears of rent for which such certificate was signed have accrued.
- (9) The word 'landlord' in this section includes an entire body of landlords, and also one or more co-sharer landlords who collects or collect his or their share or shares of the rent separately; and, where a Revenueofficer signs a certificate on the requisition of one or more such co-sharer landlords, he shall at the same time issue to each of the remaining cosharer landlords a copy of such certificate."

(Secs. 212-213.)

CHAPTER XVI.

SALE FOR ARREARS UNDER DÉCREE.

 - (b) take away or limit the right of an occupancy-raiyat to use land as provided by section 27;
 - (c) take away the right of a raiyat to surrender his holding in accordance with section 97:
 - (d) take away the right of a raiyat to transfer or bequeath his holding in accordance with custom or local usage;
 - (e) take away the right of an occupancy-raivat to sub-let subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of this Act;
 - (f) take away the right of a raiyat to apply for a reduction of rent under section 45 or section 60;
 - (g) take away the right of a landlord or an occupancy-raiyat to apply for a commutation of rent under section 47; or
 - (h) affect the provisions of section 76, relating to interest payable on arrears of money rent:

Provided as follows:-

- (i) nothing in this section shall affect the terms or conditious of a lease granted bond fide for the reclamation of waste land, except that where, on or after the expiration of the term created by the lease, the lessee would, under Chapter V, be entitled to an occupancy-right in the land comprised in the lease, nothing in the lease shall prevent him from acquiring that right;
- (ii) when a landlord has reclaimed waste land by his own servants or hired labourers, and subsequently lets the same or a part thereof to a raiyat, nothing in this Act shall affect the terms of any contract whereby a raiyat is prevented from acquiring an occupancy-right in the land or part during a period of thirty years from the date on which the land or part is first let to a raiyat;
- (iii) nothing in this section shall affect the terms or conditions of any contract for the temporary cultivation of horticultural or orchard land with agricultural crops.

(Secs. 233-236:)

Explanation.—The expression "horticultural land," as used in proviso (iii), means garden land, in the occupation of a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, which is used bona fide for the cultivation of flowers or vegetables or both, grown for the personal use of such proprietor or permanent tenure-holder and his family, and not primarily for profit or sale.

Permanent mukarrari cases.

233. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent a proprietor or a holder of a permanent tenure in a permanently-settled area from granting a permanent mukarrari lease on any terms agreed on between him and his tenant.

Utbandi char and diara lands.

- 234. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a raiyat-
 - (a) who, in any part of the country where the custom of utbandi prevails, holds land ordinarily let under that custom and for the time being let under that custom, or
 - (b) who holds land of the kind known as char or diara, shall not acquire a right of occupancy-in case (a), in land ordinarily held under the custom of utbandi and for the time being held under that custom, or in case (b), in the char or diara land, until he has held the land in question for twelve continuous years; and, until he acquires a right of occupancy in the land, he shall be liable to pay such rent for his holding as may be agreed on between him and his landlord.

- (2) Chapter VI shall not apply to raiyats holding land under the custom of utbandi in respect of land held by them under that custom.
- (3) The Collector may, on the application of either the landlord or the tenant, or on a reference from the Revenue Court, declare that any land has ceased to be char or diara land within the meaning of this section; and thereupon all the provisions of this Act shall apply to the land.

Saving as to service-tenures. 235. Nothing in this Act shall affect any incident of a ghatwali or other service-tenure, or, in particular, shall confer a right to transfer or bequeath a service-tenure which, before the commencement of this Act, was not capable of being transferred or bequeathed.

Homesteads.

236. (1) When a raiyat holds his homestead otherwise than as part of his holding as a raiyat, the incidents of his tenancy of the homestead shall be regulated by local custom or usage, and, subject to local custom or usage, by the provisions of this Act applicable to land held by a raiyat.

(Secs. 237-239.)

- (2) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the incidents of the tenancy of a chandradar shall be regulated by local custom or usage, and his rent shall be liable to re-assessment on each revision of a land-revenue settlement.
- 237. Nothing in this Act shall affect any custom, usage or customary Saving of right not inconsistent with, or not expressly or by necessary implication custom, modified or abolished by, its provisions.

Illustrations.

- (1) The custom or usage whereby the right of a non-occupancy raiyat is heritable is not inconsistent with, and is not expressly or by necessary implication modified or abolished by, the provisions of this Act. That custom or usage, accordingly, wherever it exists, will not be affected by this Act.
- (2) A usage under which a rayat in a permanently-settled estate is entitled to sell his holding without the consent of his landlord is not unconsistent with, and is not expressly or by necessary implication modified or abolished by, the provisions of this Act. That usage, accordingly, wherever it may exist will not be affected by this Act.
- (3) The custom or usage, that an under rayat should, under certain circumstances, acquire a right of occupancy is not inconsistent with, and is not expressly or by necessary implication modified or abolished by, the provisions of this Act. That custom or usage, accordingly, wherever it exists, will not be affected by this Act.

CHAPTER XVIII.

LIMITATION.

- 238. (1) The suits, appeals and applications specified in Schedule Limitation in III shall be instituted and made within the time prescribed in that and splications should be sufficiently; and every such suit or appeal instituted, stong in application made, after the period of limitation so prescribed, shall be dismissed, although limitation has not been pleaded.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall revive the right to institute any suit or appeal or make any application which would have been barred by limitation if it had been instituted or made immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Provisions as to temporarily-settled districts.

Saving as to in estates which have ever been permanently s ettled.

247. Where the area comprised in a tenancy is situated in an estate tenancies held which has never been permanently settled, nothing in this Act shall prevent the enhancement of the rent upon the expiration of a temporary settlement of the land-revenue, unless the right to hold beyond the term of the settlement at a particular rate of rent has been expressly recognized in settlement proceedings by a revenue-authority empowered by the Government to make definitively or confirm settlements.

Power to alter rent in case of new land-revenue.

- 248. When a landlord grants a lease, or makes any other contract, purporting to entitle the tenant of land not included in an area perassessment of manently settled to hold that land free of rent or at a particular rent, and while the lease or contract is in force—
 - (a) land-revenue is for the first time made payable in respect of the land, or
 - (b) land-revenue having been previously payable in respect of it, a fresh settlement of land-revenue is made, a Revenue-officer may, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the parties, by order, on the application of the landlord or of the tenant, or of his own motion, fix a fair and equitable rent for the land in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Remission and suspension of rent.

249. (1) Whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land-revenue payable in respect of any land, not included in an area which has been permanently settled, is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, by general or special order, remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land-revenue of which the payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land, and may distribute the amount so remitted or suspended amongst the tenants holding such land as may seem to him to be equitable, having regard to the effect on their tenures or holdings of the cause which has led to the remission or suspension of the land-revenue:

Provided that, where the rent is taken by actual division of the produce, no portion of it shall be suspended under this section.

- (2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.
- (3) No suit shall lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or, during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended; and, so long as a suit does not lie, such rent shall not be legally payable.
- (4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period of suspension shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation provided for bringing a suit for the recovery of the rent.
- (5) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, as far as may be, to land of which the land-revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for or redeemed, in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might in the opinion of the Revénue-officer, have been remitted or suspended.

Conditions of Sale.

The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Certificate-officer; but the Certificate-officer will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it, subject always to the provisions of rule 28 in Schedule II to the Bihar and Orissa Public Demands Recovery Act, 1914.

5. In the case of movable property, the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale directs,, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and re-sold.

6. In the case of immovable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be put up again and re-sold.

7. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the office of the Certificate-officer closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or, if the fifteenth
